Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-4 and 10 are pending in this application.

Action Summary

The examiner acknowledges the cancellation of claims 5-10. Therefore, any and all objections and/or rejections directed to them are hereby withdrawn.

The rejection of claims 1-4 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Wooley et al. is being maintained for the reasons stated in the office action dated September 29, 2006.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Wooley et al. (US 6,383,500).

Wooley et al. disclose particles comprising crosslinked shell domain useful for pharmaceutical and other applications. Column 9, line 32 through column 12, line 15 teaches examples of classes of monomers and polymers that can be employed.

Column 58, lines 14-19 teach that the particles can have a particle size from about 2 to 1000nm. Column 62, lines 1-6 teach that the particles can be used in cosmetic compositions comprising a cosmetically salt thereof.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed April 25, 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that Wooley does not teach or suggest that any cosmetic ingredients are part of the particles themselves. The examiner disagrees. Column 58, lines 65-66 teach that a pharmaceutical active agent can be contained within the particle. Although Wooley does not explicitly teach a skin care ingredients, it is well known that some pharmaceutical agents can be used as skin care ingredients. Furthermore, column 59, line 49 through column 60 line 7 disclose examples of the pharmaceutically active agent of which anti-inflammatories and vitamins are listed.

Disposition of claim 10

Claim 10 will be rejected along with claims 1-4 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Wooley et al. as disclosed above.

Conclusion

Claims 1-4 and 10 are rejected.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
